

JUDr. Ingrid Lanczová, PhD., (born in 1991) graduated from the Faculty of Law, Comenius University in Bratislava in 2014 (Master's degree), and Faculty of Law, Trnava University in Trnava with the titles JUDr. (2015) and PhD. (2018).

She was an intern at the Centre for Legal Aid in Bratislava and at Grammar School Metodova in Bratislava.

Since 2018, she has been working as a researcher and assistant at the Department of History of Law, Faculty of Law, Trnava University in Trnava. She has been teaching Slovak History of State and Law and World Legal History. She held lectures in these subjects for Erasmus students, too. In 2019, she became a secretary at the Department and co-organiser of clinical education at the Faculty. In 2021, she has been designated as Pro-dean for Student Education.

She improved her languages at several language courses (English language in Hastings and Oxford, Italian language in Rome, Hungarian language in Debrecen). She received scholarships for short-term research stays in Austria, Hungary, and France.

She actively participated at conferences in Slovakia and abroad (Poland, Austria).

She is an author and co-author of two monographs and more than 35 publications, predominantly about the history of family law, history of health law, and medical law.